2023-24 School Mental Health Grants

Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency

Gaggle partners with school districts across the country to keep students safe and thriving. Through student centric teletherapy, 24/7 crisis counselors, and digital monitoring, Gaggle prevents tragedies.

In Pennsylvania:

- Gaggle employs 15 licensed therapists specialized in providing teletherapy to students.
- 1,600 live teletherapy sessions have been provided to students.
- More than 150,000 students are protected by Gaggle.
- 82 lives have been saved by Gaggle alerts during the past two school years.

With these funds, you can provide digital safety, a 24/7 crisis line, and flexible teletherapy for your students for two years.

Grant applications are due Thursday, February 29th.
