Pupil Services Administrators: Everyday Superheroes

41st Annual PAPSA Conference
April 3 - 5, 2019

Please join us for the 2019 PAPSA annual conference, which will be held April 3-5, 2019 at the beautiful The Inn at Leola Village in Leola, PA. The theme this year will be Pupil Services Administrators: Everyday Superheroes. This year, there will be a pre-session beginning at 3:00 PM on Wednesday, April 3rd and the main sessions will be held on Thursday, April 4th and Friday, April 5th. There will also be a PAPSA Executive Board meeting from 1:00 to 3:00 PM on April 3rd. Board meetings are open to any interested member.

Wednesday's program will begin with a presentation by Jill Clodgo, from the Pennsylvania Department of Health's Division of School Health Services, who will provide a School Health Update. That session will be followed by a Welcome from the Pennsylvania Department of Education featuring PA Secretary of Education Pedro A. Rivera. We are honored to have Secretary Rivera join us. Wednesday's program will conclude with an outstanding President's Networking and Socializing Reception Sponsored by GHR Education. Please join us for fine food and collegiality.

On Thursday, attendees will be treated to a Continental Breakfast Sponsored by Gaggle. Then, a variety of programs will be offered beginning with Restorative Justice for All: The Intersection of Behavioral Supports and the Implementation of School-wide Restorative Practices presented by William Zee, Esq. from the law firm of Barley & Snyder. During the morning session, there will be a Break Sponsored by Kininvolved. Following the morning session, we will hold our annual business meeting and enjoy a Buffet Luncheon Sponsored by Frontline Education. During the annual business meeting, NAPSA Executive Director Wayne Fausnaught will bring greetings and the PAPSA awards will be presented. The buffet luncheon will also feature door prizes. After lunch, Dr. Seria Chatters, Director of Diversity and Inclusive Excellence for the State College Area School District, will present Restorative Practices and Inclusivity. After a Break Sponsored by Kininvolved, a Student Panel from the State College Area School District will be featured in a session titled How Students Use Restorative Practices.

On Friday, after another delicious Continental Breakfast Sponsored by Gaggle, the conference will feature the acclaimed Paul Stevens Memorial Legal Seminar with attorneys Sharon Montanye and Jane Williams, along with their associates from the law firm of Sweet, Stevens, Katz, and Williams, who will address legal issues impacting special education during the morning session. During the morning session, there will be a Break Sponsored by Kininvolved. Following a buffet luncheon, the afternoon session will concentrate on legal issues related to pupil services. This is a great opportunity for you to update your knowledge of recent court decisions that may influence the conduct of your programs and services. The seminar is in its 18th year and is generally considered a highlight of the conference program.

Please join us this April for three days of networking, up-to-date information, and good company with your Pupil Services colleagues from across the state. The PAPSA Conference is the premier professional development resource for Pupil Services/Special Education Administrators in the Commonwealth. And while you're at it, why not plan to add a day or two and explore what Lancaster County has to offer? There are many attractions for adults and children alike. The Amish farms, music theaters, outlet malls, fresh produce markets, amusement parks, antique railroads, craft shops, and other fascinating activities are available, all within a few minutes of the conference site. Lancaster County is a national and worldwide destination for entertainment and culture, which attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors each year. This is an opportunity to combine a vacation with the exceptional professional development that the PAPSA Conference offers. We look forward to seeing you in Lancaster this spring!
